

THE INSTITUTE FOR SOCIAL AND HEALTH SCIENCES

in the College of Human Sciences, Unisa, in collaboration with the Psychological Society of South Africa and the Pan-African Psychology Union cordially invites you to the

19th Annual Peace, Safety and Human Rights Memorial Lecture

The Imagination Battle: Struggles for Liberation as Struggles of Imagination

KEYNOTE ADDRESS

Dr Thandi Gamedze

Desmond Tutu Centre for Religion and social Justice, University of the Western Cape

Dr Gamezde is an academic, a facilitator, a cultural worker, a writer, a poet, an educator, and a theologian. She has broad experience working across multiple sites, including churches, universities, and community organisations. Her focus is developing critical consciousness for enacting change in communities.

RESPONDENT

Zandi Radebe

University of South Africa

Zandi Radebe is a lecturer at the University of South Africa. Her interest include Liberation historiographies, Memory and Resistance, Anti-Black Racism, and Africana womanism. Her specialisations include Political Theory/Political Philosophy, Pan African Black Consciousness Philosophy and Decoloniality.

This Lecture Series seeks to highlight the new frontiers and challenges facing the culture of democracy, peace, safety and human rights in South Africa and globally.

19:00 – 21:00 (SAST)
22 October 2024

Click here for the livestream

Join us in this lecture and earn 1
Ethics and 1 General CEU!

Define tomorrow.

UNISA university of south africa