

UNISA's Departments of Industrial and Organisational Psychology and Psychology INVITE you to attend the Annual Online
Consulting Psychology Conference

CONFERENCE THEME: Shifting behaviour through Consulting Psychology
#Navigating paradoxes

As we travel beyond the profound learnings we have accrued over the last four years, we confront the personal consequences of our shared experience. We face the paradoxes of existence, where certainty becomes absurdity, challenging our relevance and purpose.

Our 2024 conference offers a rich tapestry of insights into the multiple levels of intervention within consulting psychology. We address the needs of individuals, the dynamics of groups, the complexities of organisations, as well as their impact on communities and society at large. From people to teams to companies and beyond — divided, diverse, demanding, and dented — we explore the paradoxes, facilitate a lattice work for healing, and support growth within our profession and beyond.

Join us in this transformative journey, where professional insight meets compassionate intervention, where together, we redefine resilience in a world filled with challenges and possibilities.

Date: 6 and 7 November 2024 (09:30 -15:30 SAST)
